Dear Programme Heads,

In addition to the flag hoisting on Independence Day, since this is the 70th Year of our Independence, as part of Government of India's initiative of celebrating this milestone as "Azaadi 70", I request you to organize the following student activities, under your guidance:-

1. Celebrate the Quit India Day (9th August) and recap the Jallianwalah Bagh Massacre through a patriotic song or play or skit.
2. An Essay Writing competition on the theme "Relevance of 70 years of Independence in today's context". Kindly ensure that the essays by students should reach Prof. Pushkar Parulekar (pushkar@sfimar.org) / Mr P A Jose (jose@sfimar.org) latest by 12 Aug'16 as they will be evaluated for awards.

Also I want to request that all the Faculty and Staff need to participate in this celebration. A detailed Independence Day Programme has been attached for all of you.

Maharashtra Reading Day Celebration...

Mon, Oct 15, 2018 at 12:14 PM

Dear SFIMARites,

Greetings from LIRC!

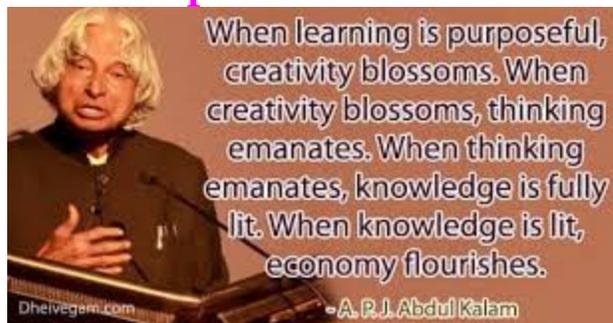

Kalam's birthday was declared 'Maharashtra Reading Day' on 15th Oct 2016 by Education Minister Mr. Vinod Tawde. Tawde said that "Maharashtra Reading Day" would inspire children and the younger generation to make reading a habit which is getting challenged with the advent of cellphones and other devices at an early age. "The children tend to emulate their parents, and it leads to cellphone addiction as early as two years of age. Hundreds of colleges in the state organised their own reading day programmes, literary and poetry meetings, reading corners and other events to mark the scientist-turned-politician Kalam's 85th birthday anniversary. (Business Standard, 15 Oct 2016)

SFIMAR LIRC organised Book Exhibition on 12th Oct' 2018 to commemorate 87th Birth

Anniversary of Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam, as from 15th Oct exams were scheduled. Book exhibition was a great success with participation of 3 vendors, 2 publishers and visitors comprising of faculty, staff and students. LIRC team worked hard towards the execution of the event, I convey thanks and appreciation to the team. Special thanks to Ms. Selma for coordination in poster and banner making and other arrangements. Keep the spirit high! Hats off to the Maintenance team for tirelessly helping with the arrangements. IT team for IT infrastructure for instant checking of availability of books and was appreciated by the vendors too. LIRC Team thanks Ms. Apurva for compering the event and Mr. Binoy for master photography. Many thanks to Bro. Alphonse, Dr. S. S. Mohanty for inaugurating the event by lighting of the lamp and continuous support and encouragement as ever for conducting the same.

LIRC team thanks all the SFIMAR family members for visiting and selecting books in spite of their busy schedule. We missed some faculty/staff members as they were on leave or engaged in training prog. However specific requests can be catered by the team in the future, as usually done.

To celebrate 'Maharashtra Reading Day' today, LIRC team would like to gift books and sweets to kids in orphanage as token of love and respect to Dr. Kalam and his principles. Kalam's writings are an inspiration to students and youth.

Report of the event shall follow shortly as requisition compilation and approval process need to be carried out.

Enjoy reading, Be updated!
